

Schoolwide Learner Outcomes

A Responsible and Ethical Decision Maker who

- Acts with integrity on campus and in the community
- Maintains positive conduct and self control with fellow students, instructors and staff
- Advocates for themselves and others using the ethical expectations
- Contributes to the improvement of society
- Assumes responsibility for conduct standards upheld by responsible citizens

A Creative and Adaptable Learner who

- Develops academic literacy in order to demonstrate knowledge of content terminology, procedures and skills within a specific major
- Develops analytical agility and situational awareness resulting in appropriate response strategies
- Demonstrates self-determination and motivation
- Identifies learning strengths and weaknesses through self-evaluation, peer evaluation and self-reflection

A Skilled Communicator and Collaborator who

- Utilizes reading, writing, speaking and active listening to communicate effectively and collaborate productively
- Demonstrates the ability to communicate with others from varying perspectives and backgrounds by participating in collaborative practices
- Reads, analyzes and annotates various academic and technical texts
- Develops the ability to negotiate, persuade and advocate

An Adaptive and Productive Problem Solver who

- Applies analytical and systematic approaches to solve problems
- Approaches problems from differing perspectives
- Questions and applies critical reasoning
- Applies acquired knowledge to prioritizing the design, creation of and revision of projects to completion

A Digitally Responsible and Literate Citizen who

- Demonstrates responsible and ethical use of technology and equipment as they follow the district Acceptable Use Policy for Technology
- Demonstrates proficiency in technology standards
- Represents themselves and their school in an appropriate and professional manner in all digital applications
- Demonstrates the skills gained during their experiences by creating a digital portfolio that contains work appropriate to their current grade level